All were in favor

Workers-none bailed at the last event, even the Chatt. group stayed until the end

Old Business:

OSR & OSF

Allen stated that what he has heard from the club members is that we want to keep the classes and make written rules for them.

Suggestions:

Move under 1.9 liters or make same and exclude S2000 (must go into class they belong in).

Need written rules and to be done before season starts

All possibilities have to be thought of

Allen appointed Wendell to get with Andrew and Dean to form committee to bring written rules to meeting next month, club will vote on them.

Jerry will have bylaws @ Nov. meeting to be published vote on in December.

Dimitri expressed his disappointment about the divisional being counted in the points.

Wendell brought up night event being dropped.

Richard and Allen said they decided to drop event because of all the complaints. Both of these situations had been discussed thoroughly at prior meetings.

Wendell and Richard had an in depth and heated discussion, Wendell continued to disagree and Richard showed his displeasure by leaving.

Allen mentioned number of events needing to be cut down for next year.

Allen motions to adjourn at 7:45
